

SPEAKER PROFILE

Pam Confer

Pam Confer is an award-winning, bilingual professional singer, songwriter, speaker and public relations consultant. Confer's ability to engage and captivate her audiences uniquely positions her as a stand-out performer. In December of 2017, Pam wrote, recorded and debuted the song, "Mississippi Beautiful," a tribute to the state's bicentennial and the opening of the Two Museums. The uplifting song is permanently featured in the "Where Do We Go from Here" Gallery of Mississippi's new Civil Rights Museum. Her complementing children's book, "I am Mississippi Beautiful," will debut in the fall of 2018.

Pam will present two Power & Might sessions on Attitudes, Choice and Change.

Breakout Session

Can You Hear Me Now? Your Inner Voice is Talking
Monday, Dec. 3, 11:00 am

The first and most productive questions about which direction to go in life start with you. This session highlights the importance of intuition, instinct and following your "gut" feeling in order to weed-out the "woulda, coulda, shoulda" moments that hinder happiness.

Closing Session

It's Not How You Shine... It's Who You Polish
Tuesday, Dec. 4, 10:30 am

You can polish a silver platter so good that you see your own reflection in it. This concept also applies to our relationships with people that we interact with each day. Participants will take an introspective look at their personal and professional lives, and determine if they are a "polisher" or a "shiner." From there, they will learn how to create opportunities that allow others to excel.
